

Glenn Harris, 2007 M.Div

Glenn and his son, Ari at his Bar Mitzvah

Glenn is the associate rabbi at Congregation Shema Yisrael, a messianic (Jewish-Christian) synagogue in Bloomfield Hills, MI. Glenn graduated from MTS in 2007 with an M.Div.

Glenn grew up in a traditional though non-religious Jewish home in Los Angeles, CA. In 1981 he came to faith in Jesus (whom he calls "Yeshua" - His Hebrew name) through the witness of a co-worker and hearing the Gospel preached.

Glenn spent 10 1/2 years as a missionary evangelist with Jews for Jesus before coming to Michigan to work in a congregational setting. When he sensed the need to pursue graduate theological studies, MTS became the clear choice.

Glenn is grateful for the education he has received. He credits MTS for taking his teaching to a much deeper level, and members of his congregation concur - they have benefited from the investment in his education. The congregation's website may be found at: www.shema.com
